

2023 TRIBUTE TO WOMEN Honoree Nomination Guidelines

The Women's Center for Advancement, with honorary chair Dr. Katie Weitz, Ph.D., will honor up to ten women at the 36th Annual Tribute to Women Luncheon on Thursday, June 29, 2023.

The purpose of this award is to pay tribute to women in our community whose actions have helped others stay safe and grow strong.

Each nominee must be an area resident who works and/or volunteers in the Greater Omaha Metro Area. A selection committee made up of community members will use the following answers in their selection process to choose nominees:

1. The nominee's personal, philanthropic, and/or professional achievements
(maximum of 500 words)

2. The nominee's community involvement and impact on the Greater Omaha Metropolitan Area (maximum of 500 words)

3. The nominee's demonstrated commitment to the WCA's mission of empowering people to lead self-determined lives (maximum of 500 words)

4. Please provide any additional information that will tell the selection committee more about the nominee (maximum of 750 words)
